

1 Special lectures organized by departments- Special Lectures were organized by many departments. In Hindi department lectures were organized to commemorate the anniversaries of Kabir, Premchand, Tulsidas and Nirala along with Hindi Diwas. Two students namely Lakhan Baganiya and Balram Yadav were awarded the Hindi language prize. In Sociology department, Manish Choudhry gave guidance to students on role of youth in the metamorphosis of society in present context. In Political science department DR.ArchanaLahiri gave lecture on the topic Making of Nation on 12/04/2016.In History department, lectures on course topics were given by PG students to groom the activity of Seminar and group discussion. Similarly such lectures were organized in Commerce department as well.

2-Reading book club---In History department personal and reference books of professors are provided to students for making notes in college and a register is maintained to record their attendance. Special guidance is given to students offering English medium. Books are also given to needy students, scholarly students and students preparing for competitive examination.