

1--The Hindi Department of college during regular classes motivates and corrects language improvement, right pronunciation, spelling correction, official correspondence, communicative reading and writing, and eloquent speech. In order to spread the progress and prosperity of Hindi language regular workshops and lectures are organized.2--There is a girls common room in college where dressing room facility for girls is there with adjoining toilets. In order to maintain health and hygiene of girls sanitary pads are given to girls free of cost and is given in keeping their need and utilization in account.